Major Activities affecting case closing:

12/01/2016 Trustee is investigating potential value of real property as a result of a potential foreclosure and resulting equity. The case/real property is monitored by the Trustee and a real estate firm for foreclosure status and potential sale during the redemption period of any foreclosure. The case is reviewed, at a minimum, on a bi-monthly basis for a change of status and for foreclosure action. During this review, the Trustee analyzes the benefit and likelihood of a potential foreclosure sale based on the information available against the need to close the case expeditiously.
